New Zealand needs a 5-years Parent vistior visa

1, Requirements:

Applicants should be in NZwhen they apply for this visa.

Applicants health check should be done in NZ.

After approved in pronciple, applicant should supply the copy of one-year personal health insurance policy by a NZ insurance company.

This 5-years vistor visa is subject to the applicants' each year's new personal health insurance policy issued by a NZ insurance company. The visa will exprie automatically in one month if the following personal health insurance is not supplied.

Each applicant should supply NZ$5000.00 as a security deposit. This deposit will be refund to the applicant in one month after the visa expired and the applicant left NZ.

The sponsors should live in NZ when their parent submit the application while their parent live in NZ.

These visa holers can stay in NZ as long as their visas are valid. They don't need to leave NZ in order to apply for another 5-years Parent visitor visa.

2, Benifits:

NZ can keep the current Parent residence visa requirements.

More parent can come to NZ, live with their families in NZ and help to look after their families, such as look after the kids.

They will not bring extra burdens to NZ medical care, superannuation and benefits systems.